OFFICIAL

Dear Mr Patrick,

I refer to the above matter and your correspondence below.

To date, Chambers has not received any requests from interested parties to ask questions of Mr Weise.

The Full Bench has considered your correspondence and advises that Mr Weise is not required to attend the hearing to affirm his statement.

Kind regards,

Maggie Wu (she/her)

Associate to Vice President Asbury

Subject: AM2024/6 - Variation of modern awards to include a delegates' rights term

Dear Associate,

Re: AM2024/6 - Variation of modern awards to include a delegates' rights term

I write concerning the Vice President's invitation for parties to question the MEU's witness in the above matter.

To ensure that we can facilitate Mr Weise's attendance, we respectfully request to be advised whether Mr Weise is required for questioning. If Mr Weise is not required for questioning, please advise whether Mr Weise must attend the hearing to affirm his statement or whether it is suitable for the MEU to read the statement into evidence.

Kind regards,

Jack Patrick
