Good afternoon Mr Farrow,

Further to your correspondence to Deputy President Hampton yesterday, I advise as follows.

Although the Commission would not be inclined to accept your initial view about the requirements of the Directions, there has been a delay in uploading the materials to the Major Cases Page on the FWC website. On that basis, the Commission will afford ACCI and other potential intervening party some additional time to file their substantive submissions in the matter.

Amended Directions are being issued today which provide that the material contemplated in Direction 3., including the substantive submissions, are to be filed and served by no later than 5.00pm (AWST) on Wednesday 16 August 2023.

Yours sincerely,

Luke Johanson

Associate to Deputy President Hampton
