

Casual terms award review 2021

Agenda for conference – 9:30am on Thursday 15 April 2021

This document sets the agenda for items to be discussed during the conference on 15 April 2021. A Statement was issued on 9 April 2021 ([2021] FWC 1894).

The Statement sets out the process proposed for the review required by Clause 48 of Schedule 1 to the Fair Work Act 2009 (FW Act) as amended by the Fair Work Amendment (Supporting Australia's Jobs and Economic Recovery) Act 2021.

The purpose of the conference is to discuss the following matters:

1. Does any party object to the Commission's proposed process for conducting the Casual terms review?

Parties should attend the conference in a position to state whether there is any objection to the proposed process and why.

2. Does any party object to the selection of the 6 awards at [13] of the statement for the first stage of the Casual terms review?

Parties should attend the conference in a position to state whether there is any objection to the selection of these awards and why they object.

3. Does any party object to the groupings of awards at Attachment A to the statement for the second stage of the Casual terms review?

Parties should attend the conference in a position to state whether there is any objection to the grouping of these awards and why they object.

4. There is a list of preliminary issues in relation to the scope and nature of the Casual terms review at [12] of the Statement. Are there other preliminary issues that the Commission should consider?

Parties should attend the conference in a position to identify any other preliminary issues that the Commission should consider.

5. There is a list of preliminary issues in relation to the initial group 6 of awards at [13] of the Statement. Are there other preliminary issues that the Commission should consider?

Parties should attend the conference in a position to identify any other preliminary issues that the Commission should consider in relation to the initial group of awards.
